Tranquility

On a hillside overlooking the village of Owego, NY sits the splendid Italianate structure that we have named The Glenmary Inn.

Outside our doors the large ginkgo trees have watched as the seasons and owners have come and gone, since before the Civil War.

The home was built in 1857 as a private residence and in 1998 it was transformed to The Glenmary Inn.

Visit our web site, The Glenmary Inn, to view more details on upcoming events and our facility.

Start weekend of 7/21/06

Public Open House 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM - 7/27/06

What Happened in June?

At the Kitchen Survival Training class, students learned about sanitation in the kitchen, shopping for bargains, how the butcher makes money, chef secrets, and how to cut up your own chicken to save money.

Our Father's Day was bright and sunny. We had croquet, badminton and volleyball set up for family fun. BBQ chicken was excellent!

Our Open House scheduled for 6/29 was cancelled due to a recent flooding in our area and mandatory states of emergency prevented any unnecessary driving. Our hearts go out to the flood victims and we hope the recovery process is quick. We do see activity resuming in downtown Owego. Open House has been rescheduled to 7/27 from 2:00 to 5:00 PM.

Accommodations

Nine luxurious rooms with a sitting room and library on the second floor.

Two large dining rooms and a smaller dining room are available for events.

We have an exercise room, broadband cable modem, and licensed massage therapists available.
